Jack Rose Defeats His Conqueror of a Few Days Ago by Two Lengths.

MUD MADE THE TIME SLOW.

Monsoon Ran Away with the Fifth--Mulhattan, Anxiety and Register Won.

GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, Jan. 31.

The track was very bad at Guttenburg today. The warm weather took almost all of the frost out of it, making it very muddy. The snow of last night melted and made the track very sloppy on top. Fast time was out of the question and close contests promised to be a rarity. The card was fairly good but had no special feature. The weather was mild and pleasant and the attendance was up to the limit.

The opening event was a dash of six furlongs for beaten horses. Betting had been going on for some minutes when word was sent to Judge Burke that J. Barrett was unable to make the weight on Epi, and that the owners of the horse were unable to get another jockey in his place. Judge Burke then ordered Epi scratched and ordered all bets off. The new betting showed Mulhattan the favorite, but a plunge on Rose made the latter the post first choice.

Mulhattan went off in front and was never headed save for a short time in the turn, when Lavina raced up to him. She died away, however, leaving Mulhattan all easy winner. The favorite was third, being beaten out by Craft, a 5 to 1 favorite. The second race was a 1 to 2 chance in the second race and spectators were asked to play here at that. The race was very close and it was 2 to 1 against the jockey, W. Penny, and he won by a head. The third race was a 1 to 2 chance in the second race and spectators were asked to play here at that. The race was very close and it was 2 to 1 against the jockey, W. Penny, and he won by a head. The third race was a 1 to 2 chance in the second race and spectators were asked to play here at that. The race was very close and it was 2 to 1 against the jockey, W. Penny, and he won by a head.
